${\sf Service} \ {\sf Excellence} \ {\sf Action} \ {\sf Plan} \ {\sf for} \ {\sf Facilities} \ {\sf and} \ {\sf Operations} \ {\sf -} \ {\sf Office} \ {\sf of} \ {\sf Sustainability}$

Action Stan	Timoframa
	Timeframe
	Starting in Late July '24
Information can be gleaned from their website, but can also reach out directly to request a brief presentation to us. While units within A&F will be prioritized, there are other administrative units (Vet Resources, Government Affairs, etc.) who will be part of this initiative.
Given high scores in this area, we will continue to do what we're currently doing. On the website version of our	July '24 unit's action plan, put link to feedback form to allow for continuous feedback:
https://forms.office.com/r/WQNDqPAKdX
Start putting the sustainability@umaryland.edu email address in the CC field when responding to emails in	Immediately that inbox to ensure all members of the team can see which questions have been addressed already and which still need to be addressed.
Continue to propose alternatives to reach compromises with customers where applicable. In situations	Immediately where there are no alternatives, explain clearly why and offer supporting resources (ex. legal requirements, legislatively-mandated targets, etc.)
Have information about what position within the Office of Sustainability does on our website to help clarify	Immediately roles.
Continue to use service recovery strategies and exercise them when dealing with customers whether in the Encourage staff to share experiences with service recovery (both positive and negative) to learn what works Government Affairs, etc.) who will be part of this initiative. Given high scores in this area, we will continue to do what we're currently doing. On the website version of our unit's action plan, put link to feedback form to allow for continuous feedback: https://forms.office.com/r/WQNDqPAKdX Start putting the sustainability@umaryland.edu email address in the CC field when responding to emails in that inbox to ensure all members of the team can see which questions have been addressed already and which still need to be addressed. Continue to propose alternatives to reach compromises with customers where applicable. In situations where there are no alternatives, explain clearly why and offer supporting resources (ex. legal requirements, legislatively-mandated targets, etc.) Have information about what position within the Office of Sustainability does on our website to help clarify