

Annual Report for Internal Affairs 2011

INTRODUCTION

The members of the University of Maryland, Baltimore Police Force are committed to providing quality service to the campus community. Agency personnel are expected to always conduct themselves professionally and courteously. The agency investigates all allegations of poor service, brutality or unprofessional conduct on the part of any employee of the agency. This is done to resolve any incidents or perceptions of poor service as well as to comply with the high standards established by the Commission on Accreditation for Law Enforcement Agencies.

Additionally, agency supervisory and administrative personnel conduct reviews of all the following instances involving agency personnel: Traffic accidents; departmental property losses and uses of force. Use of force reviews are conducted in each incident where police officers discharge firearms; point firearms; utilize defensive batons; take actions that result in or are alleged to have resulted in injuries or death and apply physical force when conducting police functions.

There were 29 complaints, resulting in 34 members being investigated by this agency from January 1 – December 31, 2011. They were:
